DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is in response to the applicant's Pre-Appeal Brief Request for Review filed on 10/19/10. A decision was rendered on 1/20/11 to reopen the prosecution of the application. The Finality of the Office action mailed on 6/29/10 is hereby withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 25 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,469,101 to Coleman, et al.

Coleman discloses a method of securing an intersection formed from two or more strands of a device suitable for implantation into a living tissue, the intersection defining at least two sections (overlapping = crossing strands; col. 2, 64-66), wherein the crossing strands are secured via knots (col. 3, ll. 16-18). Coleman discloses the device is made of polyester or any other synthetic material, which is non-radiopaque, and would include the portions that are knotted. Coleman also discloses the device formed from the method recited above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3773

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining

obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claim 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over

Coleman et al., as applied to the claims above, and in further in view of The Ashley Book of Knots by Clifford W. Ashley (previously recited).

Coleman discloses the method of securing an intersection formed from two or more crossed strands via knotting, but is silent with regards to how the knots are formed. However, Ashley discloses a variety of methods of forming knots. Specifically, Ashley teaches forming a "Lineman's Loop" on page 191 (included with in the Office Action dated 11/04/04). Such a knot is "strong, secure, and easily tied" (p. 191, line 8). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art of knots to secure the intersecting strands of Coleman with a Lineman's Loop, as taught by Ashley, in order to quickly form strong knots.
